

Do not rule against New Jersey's do-not-call law. States should have the right to decide for themselves on do-not-call. The FCC should protect citizens, not telemarketers, who are a public nuisance.